Inside Scoop

Behind the scenes look at La Cage Aux Folles

NAPA— Napa Valley College Foundation is hosting the second Salon in a series of three events this year. Participants are invited to Inside Scoop, a behind the scenes look at La Cage Aux Folles on Friday, March 14, 6:30-8:30 p.m. at the Napa Valley College Little Theater.

You'll see the secrets of costumes and make-up, hear about their inside secrets in the drama world, and sit right on stage for an intimate performance with the actors.

Membership to Salon is $350 or $500, or $125 to attend a single event. Everyone is invited to attend. Call 707-253-3374 to reserve your onstage seat. The NVC Foundation provides local wine and hearty hors d'oeuvres while you learn about exciting developments at the College and share your ideas with others.

Salon's purpose is to support education in the fine and performing arts at Napa Valley College. In particular, it raises funds to provide materials and equipment that will support the highest standards in arts education: a grand piano for the concert stage, lighting equipment for dramatic productions, and kilns for the ceramics studio are some examples.
