

Impulse Control Disorders

Robert M. Millay RN MSN ED
Professor, Napa Valley College
Psychiatric Technician Programs

Oppositional Defiant Disorder

- Angry and irritable mood
- Defiant and vindictive behavior
- Experience
 - > 1
 - > 2
 - > 3

Intermittent Explosive Disorder

- Inability to control aggressive impulses
- Adults 18 years or older
- Leads to problems with
 - > 1
 - > 2
 - > 3

Conduct Disorder

- Behavior is usually...
- Rights of others are violated and...
- Complications may include...

Conduct Disorder (Cont.)

- Childhood-onset conduct disorder
- Adolescent-onset conduct disorder
- Two problems
 - > 1
 - > 2

Conduct Disorder (Cont.)

- ▣ Epidemiology
- ▣ Comorbidity
- ▣ Etiology
 - 1
 - 2
 - 3
 - 4

Application of the Nursing Process

- Assessment
- Diagnosis
- Outcomes identification

Self-Assessment

Common Negative Attitudes:

- 1
- 2

Nurses' Ethical and Professional Responsibility

- 1
- 2
- 3

8

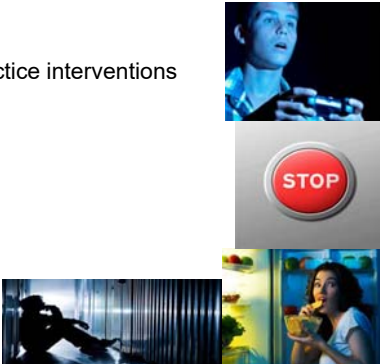

Nursing Process (Cont.)

- Implementation
 - > 1
 - > 2
 - > 3

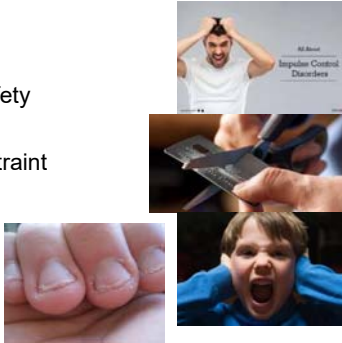

Nursing Process (Cont.)

- Advanced practice interventions
 - 1
 - 2
 - 3
 - 4
 - 5
 - 6

Nursing Process (Cont.)

- Teamwork and safety
- Seclusion and restraint
- Evaluation

Audience Response Questions

1. An adolescent with oppositional defiant disorder says, "My therapist doesn't understand me. I want to see someone else." Should this client have the option to change therapists?

- A. Yes
- B. No
- C. Not sure

