

Save the DATE!

Human Trafficking is Modern Slavery!

Join us for a FREE

Informational conference at

Napa Valley College March 13, 2015 9a-3p
NVC Performing Arts Center, Napa Main Campus

Napa is not immune to Human Trafficking

- A recent Santa Rosa sting found 75 Napa residents attempting to solicit the services of a minor
- Victims are groomed (manipulated) as early as age 9
- The average age of Human Trafficking victims is 13 years old
- Victims are boys & girls; Higher amounts are paid for boys

We CAN be the difference; we can help, learn now about Human Trafficking!

Conference includes:

- ~ 8.15am Continental Breakfast & Registration
- ~ 9am Morning Session Begins and Includes Presentations from:
 - ~ Nancy O'Malley, Alameda County District Attorney
 - ~ Chris Mahurin, Detective, Santa Rosa Police Department
 - ~ Panel of victims that escaped Human Trafficking sharing their story
 - ~ Interviews with CONVICTED Human Traffickers
- ~ Box Lunch, afternoon session offers two workshops that will repeat
- ~ Full Agenda and Conference info available soon, for now, RSVP: Doris Gentry, dgentry@napavalley.edu
- ~ Organized by Doris Gentry, NVC Foster & Kinship Care Education Program & the Team below:

Special Thanks to Napa District Attorney, Sponsor and event MC, Gary Lieberstein as well as a Steering Committee of invested and interested leaders including: Nancy O'Malley Keynote Speaker & Alameda County District Attorney; Allison Haley, Napa County Chief Deputy District Attorney; Chris Mahurin, Conference Speaker & Detective Santa Rosa Police Dept; Stephen Potter, Chief Napa Police Department; Todd Shulman, Detective Napa Police Department; Lisa Lewis-Javar Sane Sart Ex Dir; David Guerrero Napa County Probation; Julie Baptista, Napa County Probation; Anna Paulson CA Hwy Patrol Community Liason Officer; Connie Evans Health Education & Perinatal Outreach St Joseph Health; Danielle Alexander Community Organizer; Darcey Jezycki Piners Community Liaison Representative; Greg Miraglia Dean Napa Valley College; James Byrum Sane Sart; Joe Lopez Aldea Treatment Services; Kami Timm Sisters of St Joe; Mary Anne Powers FKCE Napa Valley College; Mary Butler Chief Probation Officer; Toni McIntosh Juvenile Diversion Officer Napa Police Department

