TRAINING SESSION DESCRIPTIONS

If you see a training topic that you're interested in, but it is not being offered this year, let us know! We may be able to schedule a special session. Also, if there is a new topic that you'd like us to offer, reach out to training.development@napavalley.edu and we may be able to connect you with some resources or add it to a future training schedule.

EEO & DIVERSITY

EEO Representative Training for Selection Committees
Target Audience	All Regular Employees
Frequency & Length	2.0 hour training offered 2x per semester
Description	The role of the EEO representative on the Selection Committee is to monitor the process in order to ensure that process adheres to the principles in Education Code §87100(a)(3) “that all persons receive an equal opportunity to compete for employment and promotion within the community college districts and by eliminating barriers to equal employment opportunity.” Each selection committee includes an EEO Representative whose primary function is to ensure that appropriate procedures are adhered to and that the EEO perspective is maintained throughout all of the committee’s deliberations. Thus, the EEO representative on the committee must receive specific anti-bias and compliance training and, if necessary, to report any perceived bias that cannot otherwise be resolved.

DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

The Department of Human Resources offers trainings on a variety of topics such as Selection Committee training, Title IX & Civil Rights, etc.

Bias Incident and Hate Crime Prevention
Target Audience	All Employees
Frequency & Length	1 hour as needed/requested
Description	The Bias Education and Response Team (BERT) is a group on campus whose mission is to educate staff and students about conditions under which hate crimes and bias incidents occur in order to prevent such events. In this training we will discuss the reasons why these sorts of incidents occur, pro-active behaviors to prevent these situations, and best practices for response after commission.

New Employee Orientation (NEO)
Target Audience	New probationary/permanent full-time and less-than-full time employees
Frequency & Length	Full day session offered one to two times per year (depending on the number of new hires.

Description	This is a very important session for administrative/confidential staff and will include information about the new DEI requirements for evaluations.

Selection Committee Training
Target Audience	All Regular Employees
Frequency & Length	2.0 hour training offered 2x per semester
Description	This 2-hour training course provides an overview of the recruitment process and the role and responsibility of a selection committee. Employees and students who wish to serve on a selection committee must be trained before they serve on a committee. In addition, current policy requires those who have already been trained to refresh every two years in order to be compliant with the policy. The training includes a comprehensive review of federal and state laws, principles of diversity, equity, inclusivity, and accessibility (DEIA) that are the basis of our recruitment practice, and best practice tips and suggestions to help selection committees manage the successful screening, interview, and evaluation of job candidates.

Your Rights and Responsibilities under Civil Rights Law
Target Audience	All Employees
Frequency & Length	1.5 hours as needed/requested
Description	Federally and state funded institutions have an obligation to follow regulations that can affect our funding and autonomy. This training will help you as an employee at such an institution to understand your legal duties to your students and co-workers and your rights. We will discuss reporting requirements, how to report, and best practices.

SAFECOLLEGES COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Bloodborne Pathogens: Exposure Prevention
Description	Bloodborne Pathogens: Exposure Prevention course introduces the type, statistics, and scope of the disease; guidelines for the clean-up and handling of potentially infectious wastes or contaminated materials; the risks associated with workers exposed to BBPs (including vaccination and reporting information); and delivers training designed to emphasize the practices of proper exposure control. The course contains specific references to OSHA regulation 29 CFR 1910.1030 with Internet links to the OSHA and CDC web sites.
Cyber Security Awareness: Security Awareness Essentials
Description	While technology weaknesses always represent a security threat, one of the biggest threats to an organization’s security today is human error. Employees who are unaware of the risks associated with their internet and technology usage, their role in securing their work environment can create security vulnerabilities for themselves and their organization. By the end of this course, employees at educational institutions will be able to describe the ways they can help protect against cyberattacks, define an Acceptable Use Policy and what it contains, explain best practices for protecting the security of smart devices and compare and contrast the pros and cons of “Bringing Your Own Device.”
Hazard Communications: Right to Understand GHS
Description	Exposure to hazardous chemicals on the job is a safety concern for millions of workers, including school staff. Teaching, administration, and maintenance staff commonly use chemicals for cleaning, disinfection, maintenance, and school labs. This interactive online course with live action scenarios demonstrates how OSHA’s Hazard Communication regulations can help you work safely with chemicals and prevent injury to yourself and others. Learn to identify employer and employee responsibilities for safely communicating hazardous chemicals in the workplace, as well as how to interpret key information on container labels and Safety Data Sheets.

Heat Illness Prevention (Outdoor)
Description	Keenan SafeColleges’ Heat Illness Prevention course is designed for any employee that works in an environment that subjects them to excessive heat exposure.
Injury and Illness Prevention Plan
Link	Injury Illness Prevention Program – August 2024
Mandated Reporter: Child Abuse and Neglect (AB 1432)
Description	This course provides staff with an overview of law regarding the mandated reporting of child abuse, including who must report and reporting requirements. We also provide indicators and definitions of various forms of child abuse, the impact of abuse on children and child protection. The content in this course was designed with care and sensitivity; however, some may find certain topics personally upsetting, especially for survivors of sexual abuse or assault. If you feel the need to talk with someone, please contact your Human Resources Administrator or a related resource in your community.
NVC Level 1 – Emergency Training
Description	This training will provide what is expected of you as a NVC employee, along with personal preparedness, and an overview of NVC’s emergency operations, and an introduction to the Incident Command System (ICS), Emergency Operations Plan (EOP), National Incident Management System (NIMS) and Standardized Emergency Management System (SEMS).
Office Ergonomics
Description	The Keenan SafeColleges’ Office Ergonomics course reviews techniques to improve posture, stretching exercises, and provides instruction on proper workspace arrangement including chair, table, and computer terminal configurations.
Sexual Harassment: Policy and Prevention – AB 1825
Description	The goal of Keenan SafeColleges’ Sexual Harassment: Policy and Prevention course is to train administrators and supervisors on how to handle sexual harassment concerns. This course follows the mandatory requirements for training under AB 1825.
Sexual Harassment Prevention for Non-Managers (SB 1343)
Description	California is a leader in protecting employees against sexual discrimination and harassment, so it’s critical that employees understand the law regarding sexual harassment and know their role and obligations. This course is designed to provide California employees with a basic understanding of sexual harassment and strategies to maintain a harassment-free environment. Course topics include definitions of sexual harassment, what employers must provide in their anti-harassment policies, sexual harassment in the workplace and actions victims can take.
California SB 553 Workplace Violence Prevention Definitions & Requirements
Description	This course will examine the legal expectations spelled out in SB 553 and the responsibilities the legislation places on employers. It will cover the definitions and requirements of the Labor Code enacted by SB 553. After taking this course, you should know what violence in the workplace is, understand how to respond to it, be familiar with how to report it, and identify the legal obligations that an employer has to keep workers safe.
NVC Workplace Violence & Plan
Link	Workplace Violence Prevention Program Senate Bill 553 – Fall 2024

Hazing Awareness and Prevention
Description	The goals of Keenan SafeColleges' Hazing course are to help you understand what hazing is, explain why hazing occurs, and educate you on identifying and addressing hazing incidents at your campus.

WELLNESS ACTIVITIES

WELLNESS CHALLENGES

Engaging in wellness challenges is an effective way to promote physical and mental well-being, which are key drivers of professional success. Regular participation can improve focus, reduce stress and increase energy levels, leading to enhanced productivity and overall job performance. Additionally, wellness challenges foster a sense of community and collaboration, strengthening team dynamics and boosting morale. By prioritizing health, employees are better equipped to handle workplace demands, maintain a health work-life balance, and contribute to a positive, supportive work environment.

All Napa Valley College employees are encouraged to participate in the wellness challenges and activities. Emails will be sent to all employees with information regarding the challenges closer to the first day of registration.
