- This final exam schedule applies to in-person classes and classes with synchronous instruction.
- We have made every effort to align instructional days and times with the scheduled final exam date and time. However, please note that, due to the variety of synchronous options we have made available to students, this may not be the case for every course.
- Final exams for asynchronous online classes may be scheduled to occur at any time during final exam week.
- The college is planning to provide non-proctored spaces, in accordance with health and safety and social distancing guidelines, for students who, due to scheduling or computer or internet accessibility, may need take their final exams on campus.
- If your class meets at or after 4:30pm, you will meet as regularly scheduled through the last day of final exams, May 29, 2020. Evening classes which have more than 1 class meeting during the designated final examination period may hold the final on either evening of finals week; however, the class still must be held on the other scheduled meeting date.
- Classes that meet at high-school/offsite will hold their final on the last class meeting during the regular class time, the week of final exams.
- Classes with a separate lab component will hold their final exam based on the time of the lecture. The lab portion of the class will not meet finals week, but may choose to hold a lab final the week preceding finals week.
- Saturday classes will hold their final at their regularly scheduled time on Saturday, May 29, 2021.
- Any classes not covered on the finals schedule, and/or any individual student conflicts will meet during a time arranged with the instructor.
