

Napa Valley College Disability Support Programs & Services

Date 08-18-2025 Student ID 007 Course ENGI-300 Instructor Q Days T, Th Start Time 10:00 am Notes	Semester Fall 2025 Name Bond, James Ian Section 98754 Instructor Email Q@napavalley.edu End Time 11:50 am
--	---

Additional Comments
OTHER: Temporary use of all the answers to the test.

This student has documentation of a disability. The following accommodations are approved:

Full Report Grid Edit Email More	10 Accommodation records
	Accommodation	Accommodation Description
	Chair/Desk	DSPS accessible furniture is currently placed in each classroom. Please ensure that it is available for this student's use. If there are multiple students with Chair/Desk as an accommodation in this class, please contact DSPS.
	Distraction-Reduced Examination Setting	INSTRUCTOR ACTION REQUIRED - Online classes: Student is responsible for exam/quiz setting. - In-person classes: Please submit exams/quizzes to be taken with accommodations to the Testing Center, ttc@napavalley.edu , preferably 48 hours but no less than 24 hours in advance. Please notify student when exam/quiz is available in the Testing Center.
	Emotional Support Animal	Student may bring an emotional support animal to class & school events. Students who have this accommodation have been advised of their responsibility to keep their support animal under control, and are aware that they are solely responsible for their animal's needs.
	Excused Minimum of 5 Minutes Early from Class	Student may leave at least five minutes early from class if necessary.
	Extended Examination Time (time-and-one-half)	INSTRUCTOR ACTION REQUIRED Extended time applies to all timed quizzes/exams. - Online classes: Please adjust extended time in online environment (Canvas). - In-person classes: Please submit exams/quizzes to be taken with accommodations to the Testing Center, ttc@napavalley.edu , preferably 48 hours but no less than 24 hours in advance. Please notify student when exam/quiz is available in the Testing Center. In the case of take-home exams, extended time is subject to instructor discretion.
	Other	See Additional Comments above.
	Preferential Seating: Near Exit	The student should choose a seat near the exit.
	Recorded Lectures	- Online classes: If conducting lectures on Zoom, Canvas, etc., record lectures and make available to student. - In-person classes: Student may record lectures using his/her own recording device including cell phones. Students who have this accommodation have been advised and signed an agreement with DSPS that recordings are for their personal educational use only and are not to be posted online or shared with others.
	Use of Laptop/Tablet in Classroom	Student may use a laptop or tablet for in-class assignments and note-taking purposes.
	Use of Quiet Fidget Device	Student is allowed to use a quiet fidget device during class.

Accommodations are required under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. The purpose is to provide the student with an environment to obtain information and demonstrate mastery of information being tested by minimizing or eliminating the impact of the disability. If any of the above academic adjustments results in a fundamental alteration of this course, please contact the DSPS office.

All information regarding a disability is confidential. Each student is encouraged to explain why an accommodation is needed; however, the student has the option not to disclose the specific disability.

Ramon Salceda
Senior Dean, Student Affairs/DSPS
(707) 256-7395
rsalceda@napavalley.edu

Tyler Downie, M.S.
DSPS Counselor
1764H, 707-256-7412
tyler.downie@napavalley.edu

Angie Applegate
DSPS Counselor
1766E, 707-256-7234
angelina.applegate@napavalley.edu